

ANUSA Election Regulations – Probity Officer Provisions

2.9 Disclosure Requirements

2.9.1. Upon nomination, each ticket convener and independent candidate must complete and lodge with the Probity Officer a statement of intention identifying anticipated sources of campaign funding. This statement will include all financial and non-financial contributions to the campaign, including but not limited to printing facilities, paper, paint, glue, T shirts, BBQ supplies and other sundry items.

2.9.2 At 9am on each of the days that the election polls are open, the ticket convener or independent candidate will lodge with the Probity Officer a signed statement detailing completed expenditure to date, itemizing all financial and non-financial contributions to the campaign, including but not limited to printing facilities, paper, paint, glue, T shirts, BBQ supplies and other sundry items.

2.9.3. Receipts should be maintained for all campaign related expenditure. Copies of said receipts may be required by the Probity Officer.

2.10 Probity Officer

2.10.1. One or more Probity Officer(s) shall be elected at the second JRC of the year, to be held in term 2. The Probity Officer(s) must receive two-thirds of the vote in order to be elected. The appointment shall be advertised in an edition of Woroni.

2.10.2 The Probity Officer(s) will sign a declaration of conflict of interest upon the close of nominations.

2.10.3 Conflicts of interest that may be declared include, but are not limited to, the following:

a) Membership of a political party, registered with the Australian Electoral Commission in any Australian State or Territory

b) Membership of any Political Club or Society

c) Contesting, being elected to or otherwise holding, at any time any office or position in ANUSA or the ANU Union Board.

2.10.4. The Probity Officer(s) shall make copies of the statements publicly available, complying with notice requirements as specified in s. 3.3.1 of the Meeting Regulations of the ANUSA Constitution

2.10.5. The Probity Officer(s) shall provide information to any person in relation to campaign expenditure disclosure in response to any reasonable request.

2.10.6. The Probity Officer(s) shall prepare a report attaching candidates' statements of spending and detailing a summary of the difference between anticipated and actual expenditure for each candidate and ticket seven (7) days from the date of the close of electoral polling.
