GET TALKING WITH SPEAK EVERYDAY ENGLISH

- Are you a student from a non-English speaking background?
- Would you like to practice speaking in English?
- Would you like to be introduced quickly to the Australian way of speaking?

If the answer is yes, then you might like to join our Speak Everyday English Conversation Groups. Speak Everyday English is a series of relaxed and informal sessions designed to help international students:

- further develop their English conversation skills
- understand the Australian way of speaking, and
- learn useful tips for lecture and tutorial participation.

The instructors of the program are all senior Australian students with a passion for helping newcomers to the university.

INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION

SEMESTER 1, 2010

A program of activities to be held in the Orientation period, February 2010

WELCOME TO ANU

The 2010 International Orientation program, from 8 February to 12 February, is designed to help new international students starting in semester 1, adapt more quickly to their life at ANU and Canberra.

On Tuesday 9 of February in the Manning Clark Centre, we provide important information sessions and have a number of booths representing the university's student services, student groups and community organisations. Check the timetable on the reverse side of this brochure for session times.

Throughout International Orientation you can participate in events such as informal lunches, campus tours or the Welcome Dinner and Dance. Register for these events at the International Students Services booth on International Orientation Day.

The 2010 Orientation program, from 15 February to 19 February, is designed for all students, international and local. We urge international students to attend the entire two week Orientation program as it will facilitate your academic success and assist you to make the most of your university experience.

INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION DAY

International Orientation day aims to provide new international students with the answers to many questions such as: How do I enrol? Can I get a mentor to help me? How do I catch a bus? What do I do if I get sick? What sport can I play? What events are organised in the holiday periods? Can I get a part-time job? What responsibilities do international students have?

When: Tuesday 9 February 2010
Time: 9am–3.30pm
Location: Manning Clark Centre (Building 26A)
See the timetable on the reverse side for session times and theatre numbers
